

Arturas Bumšteinas (b.1982, Vilnius) is an artist working within the fields of performative sound art, radio art, installations, experimental acoustic and electronic music. He is founding member of various ensembles and groups; since the year 2000 he has collaborated with many international artists; his exhibitions and interdisciplinary projects were presented in galleries and museums around Europe; festivals where his art-music projects were featured include The Holland Festival, Unsound, Tectonics, Sensoralia / Romaeuropa, Angelica, Vilnius Jazz, Kody, Skanumezs, Cut & Splice, etc. His music is published by labels such as Bolt, Cronica, Unsounds, Con-v and others. In the year 2013 he was awarded “Palma Ars Acustica” prize for radiophonic arts. Bumšteinas was artist-in-residence at the DAAD Berliner Künstlerprogramm in the year 2017. From the year 2019 Arturas is artistic director of Jauna Muzika festival in Vilnius.