BIO

Ilkin Huseynov is currently based in Baku (Azerbaijan). Predominantly he used to work on prevailing social issues of modern Azerbaijan. His first project "MUHIT" 2013 won several prizes, including London Photography, Invisible Photographer Asia award and PowerHouse Books competition.

In 2014 Huseynov co-founded Riot Books, an independent publishing house, specialized in handmade limited edition artist's books and published "Muhit", his first photo book. Huseynov received Open Society Foundations grant for his project "Remembering the colors". Currently, Ilkin Huseynov's photographic cityscapes develop a portrait of rapidly changing Baku. Published by Rally In The Streets, under the title "We apologise for the inconvenience".
