

Katarína Kucbelová
Writer in Residence / March 2021
Slovakia

Katarína Kucbelová is a poet and writer.

Her most recent book, the novella Čepiec (The Bonnet, 2019), was shortlisted in several literary prizes and it has won Literary Academy Award of Panta Rhei Awards and Tatrabanka foundation Art award. She has written the poetry collections Duály (Duals, Drewo a srd 2019), Šport (Sport, Ars Poetica 2006), Malé veľké mesto (A Little Big City, Ars poetica 2008) a Vie, čo urobí (He Knows What He'll Do, Artforum 2013). In the spring of 2020, the publishing house Drewo a srd has re-issued her first three poetry books. Her poetry was translated in several languages, two of her books have been published in Spain and Ukraine.

She works as a manager of cultural projects. She co-founded the literary award Anasoft Litera and until 2012, she was its managing director. She was born in Banská Bystrica and since her studies at the Academy of Performing Arts, she has lived in Bratislava. Together with her husband, she is raising a daughter.