

Andrew Neumann is an artist working in a variety of media, including sculpture, film and video installation, and electronic music. He has received numerous awards and residencies a Guggenheim Fellowship and a LEF Foundation Grant. He has had solo shows at bitforms Gallery in NYC and Seoul, Korea, The DeCordova Museum, Center for Photography at Woodstock, The Boston Cybverarts Gallery, as well as solo shows for the Boston Cyberarts Festival. His CD's are available on Sublingual Records. His videos have been screened on PBS, The Worldwide Video Festival, Artist Space, Microscope Gallery and elsewhere. He has had solo music/video performances at Issue Project Room, Experimental Intermedia and Roulette, Spectrum in NYC. During 2001 he was an Artist in Residence at the iEAR Studio at Rensselaer Polytech Institute. He has had residencies at Djerassi, The MacDowell Colony, YADDO, Ucross Foundation, Steim, Atlantic Center for the Arts, Art/OMI, iPark and Experimental Television Center.