

Arne Rautenberg

GERMANY / WRITER IN RESIDENCE / OCTOBER

Arne Rautenberg was born in Kiel, where he also finished his studies in History of Art, German Studies and Folklore. Currently the author lives and works as a freelance writer in his hometown. Since 2006 he is a lecturer in the Muthesius Academy of Fine Arts and Design in Kiel.

Rautenberg writes essays, short stories, novels and articles, but in the first place he is known for his lyric poetry. His pieces of work appeared in a number of books, a variety of his poems for children were published in German schoolbooks as well.

2013 he begins with the Liliencron Lectureship for Poetics; 2016 he was awarded with the newly founded Josef-Guggenmos Price for his work on children's poetry. 2017 Rautenberg was accepted to German Academy of Language and Poetry.

His latest publications are nulluhrnull. Lyrikpapyri, Edition Voss/Horlemann 2017 and rotkäppchen fliegt rakete. Neue Gedichte für Kinder, Peter Hammer Verlag 2016.

The multifaceted author impresses the audience with his performance as well as with a vast literary spectrum.

Reading for children

Arne Rautenberg will give a reading on October 5th, 6 pm at the Hellerhof in 3508 Paudorf. Free entrance.